W .HY.SMITH, Beditors.
IRAP.JONES. Beditors.
JOHN E. HATCHER, Associate Editor. Office--- No. 16 Deaderick Street.

For President, JOHN BELL, For Vice-President,

ELECTORAL TICKET, FOR THE STATE AT LARGE. BAILIE PEYTON, of Summer. N. G. TAYLOR, of Carter.

FOR THE DISTRICTS. 1. J. W. DEADERICK, of Washington. 2. O. P. TEMPLE, of Knox. 3. ALFRED CALDWELL, of McMinn.

4. S. S. STANTON, of Smith. 5. E. I. GOLLADAY, of Wilson. 6. WM. F. KERCHEVAL, of Lincoln. 7. JOHN C. BROWN, of Giles. 8. JOHN F. HOUSE, of Montgomery. 9. ALVIN HAWKINS, of Carroll. 10. D. B. NABORS, of Shelby.

Central Executive Committee.

EDWIN H. EWING, NEILL S. BROWN, ALLEN A. HALL, P. W. MAXEY, JOHN LELLYETT, JOHN H. CALLENDER, HORACE H. HARRI-

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 25, 1860

The Fight is between Bell and Lincoln. The Union and American, July 28th, said the N. Y. Herald, "has perhaps a greater influence than any other paper in the Union with the hundreds of thous ands of conservative men in the Northern and Mid dle States, engaged in mercantile and manufacturio parsuits, who care nothing for the success of on-party or the other party, in a partizan sense, bu who are willing to contribute any and every thing to any party that will be most likely to crush out I

The fight, which up to this time appeared to be a quadrangular one is now becoming narrowed down to a hand-to-hand conflict between the legions of black republicanism, headed by Lincoln, and the patriotic, practical, conservative masses of the people, headed by JOHN BELL .--- V Herald, Aug. 21.

Mr. Breckinridge on the Stump.

We publish elsewhere a correspondence be tween certain citizens of Kentucky and Mr. BRECKINRIDGE, wherefrom it will be seen that he agrees to make a speech in vindication of himself against certain charges made by to be made on the 5th September, near Lexington. If Mr. BRECKINBINGE designs to confine himself to one speech, we would suggest that the surest and most effectual way to relieve himself from misrepresentations, would be to take his pen and write down their refutation. This thing of reporting speeches, or handing down precise expressions by tradition is rather unsafe, as he has reason to know. If he desires to be equivocal, or afford an opportunity for his friends to equivocate, let him make the speech, by all means; but if he wants to be understood unmistakably, let him write out his vindication in the plainest terms and put it in type over bi own sign manual. But if he makes one speech, why not make a dozen, fifty, or an hundred? If he takes the stump at all, we hope he will keep it till the election. Let him invite DougLas to meet him, and give us a "battle royal." We are induced to cherish a faint hope that such will be the case, by the following paragraph from the Louisville Breckinridge and his friends is that he shall make five or six speeches in Kentucky during the canvass. We shall not be at all surprised to find him extending his tour through Tennessee and perhaps through other States.

The Montgomery Mail republishes an extract from the Nashville Banner, stating that "An extract from an editorial in the Nashville Patrior, of September 16, 1859, which we give the reader with the remark that the PATRIOT is one of Mr. Bell's home organs.

As the Mail appended the extract to its article with the proper credit, we would like to know what purpose it desired to subserve by the remark we quote above? "Choke that gal with a cold tater," or she will expose her-

The correspondent of the Avalanche, we suspect, has misconceived his remarks; if he did not misrepresent them intentionally. We do not charge the latter. We neither incline to the former view.

The above sentences are from an article in vesterday's Patriot commenting on an extract from the correspondence of the Memphis Avalanche, relative to positions of Hon. EMERSON ETHERIDGE. The word "neither" was written "rather."

A Dead Man on the Ticket.

The BRECKINEIDGE-YANCEY Democracy of New York were so "hard put to it" to find electors for their ticket, they put in nomination for one of the districts ALBERT H. TRAcer, a gentleman who has been dead two years. A New York paper, commenting on As it was evident that the disunion party was going to its grave as fast as possible, the convention, doubtless, saw the propriety of choosing electors from that locality. A Suggestion.

As Mr. Breckinridge is going to take the stump shortly, would be not like to have Mr. Douglas accompany him, and speak, turn about ?- Cincinnati Enquirer.

Let them take the stump together, by all means. The people of this country are fast becoming disgusted with democracy, and we think a spectacle of that character would so nauseate them, that they would never again favor anything professing even to be demo-

Card from Col. Clemens. From the Huntsville Democrat.

DEAR SIR: I was both surprised and pained on reading the following editorial article in the Independent of this date:

"Messrs. Yancey and Clemens.—In his speech in Memphis, on Tuesday last, Mr. Yancey took occasion to speak of Hon. Jere. Clemens in a sneering manner, applying to him the offensive epithet of 'political Hes-sian.' Mr. Clemens has addressed a note to Mr. Yancey, demanding an explanation.— The note was handed to Mr. Y., on yesterday facts in the case next week." My note to Mr. Yancey was a private, not the while, out of sight. There is no need, a public matter. It did not demand an expla-nation: but simply made an inquiry, and this bold and somewhat ominous title that frowns article appearing, as it does, after the publi-cation of Mr. Yancey's disclaimer of any oftensive imputation, seemingly places me in the attitude of seeking a quarrel. It is, therefore, due to my own character to say, that its publication was without my knowledge,

If I had read Mr. Yancey's card in the of the Gods grind slowly"-fully proves that Memphis Enquirer, my note to him would not have been delivered at all, and I am sure that the Editors of the Independent were ignorant of the contents of that card, when retribution, though sometimes slow, is always sure. The book is well written, the plot artistic, the characters admirably drawn, the descriptions of scenery vividly portrayed, the editorial, quoted above, was penned.

Mr. Yancey did, unasked, all that I had a the conversations natural and easy, and the right to require; and I hope no portion of my fellow-citizens believe me capable of pursoing such a matter any further.

Very respectfully, yours, &c., JERE. CLEMENS.

J. W. CLAY, Esq., Huntsville, Ala.

EDWARD EVERETT. OF MASSACHUSETTS.

very, which are the antipodes of those generally held in that section of the Union. The Tribune goes so far as to charge him with complicity in the repeal of the Missouri restrution,-be having voted to place in the Kansas-Nebraska bill the clause repealing it, and with voting on other amendments in such way as to show his partiality for the institution of slavery, and then declares that his vote against the bill does not exempt him from the responsibility of having given the votes which, in its eyes, are reprehensible. The St. Louis Democrat, the old organ of the democracy of Missouri, now supporting the Republican ticket, turns its batteries upon Mr. Bell also. On the 18th inst., in an article under the caption of "Bell's Position on the Slavery Question," it says:

the N. Y. Tribine, and other republican journals, are engaged in an effort to prejudice

the people of the North against him, on ac-

The result of the Kentucky election, and the impulse thereby given to the Bell and Everett movement, render it proper that the opinions of Bell on the stsvery question should be fully and correctly made known to the public. Nor is this a difficult task. He has served in Congress and Cabinets; he participated in the great controversies of '50-'54. His record is therefore extensive, and, judging from a letter of his, recently written and published, he refers to it with pride, and confidently invites its inspection. We think it will be found, on examination, that he is a decided pro-slavery man; that his opinions on the slavery question are identical with those professed by the Breckinridge Demoracy, and not at all with those which were held by Clay and the Whig party. True, he is not an agitator of that question, and that s the sole difference in the premises between templating the alternative of secession in the vent of that policy being frustrated. The protection and extension of slavery within the Union is the platform on which and beneficent in its operations and results that the powers and resources of the Confederacy would not be half what they are, exept for slave labor; and that the institution the institution. But we have also an emphatic avowal of the Calhoun theory, (now he speciality of the Southern or Breckinridge Democracy) on the "Constitutional rights" of slavery in the Territories. In the same speech, Mr. Bell affirms that the "soundness t the doctrine that the Constitution carries lavery proprio eigore into the Territories; that the flag of the Union protects the citizen in the enjoyment of his rights of property of every description, excognized as such in any of the States, on every sea and in every Territo-Judge Douglas and others. This speech is ry of the Union," cannot be successfully im-

That the foregoing is no imadvertent assertion, no rhetorical flourish, but a matured opinion, is shown by the Senator's vote on the Kansas-Nebraska bill four years later. On the 15th of February, by way of amendment, to insert the followng, containing the very virus and deadly fangs of the disastrous measure: "which (the Missouri compromise) being inconsistent and Everett with the enthusiasm of youth." Congress with slavery in the States and Territories, as recognized by the legislation of 1850 (commonly called the Compromise measures), is hereby declared inoperative and

These are the words in which the Missouri ompromise was abolished, and John Bell, of ennessee, voted for their adoption and their corporation in the bill, as well as Atchison Geyer and Douglas. As Bell has never acoccasion was necessarily east in conformity rails and raves. with the Southern interpretation of the "principles of the Kansas Nebraska bill;" in ther words, in conformity with the declaration quoted above which he had made four years previously.

These facts speak for themselves. We have o comment to make on them farther than to an who himself voted for the abrogation of ne Missouri Compromise, and who declares against the Kansas Nebraska bill on its pasage, but he did so because it gave aliens the same privileges as natives in the new Territories-a circumstance which has no sort of relation to his position on the slavery que-

Thus, Mr. Bell, is assailed North and South, but upon opposite grounds. Republicans assail him because he is true to the rights of the South; and Southern democrats perver his noble record to assail him as untrue to the rights of the South. The republicans and their allies South, in the war on Mr. Bell. whilst striking with different weapons, are prompted by similar motives. The election of Mr. Bell would give peace to the country, heal the dissensions whice divide the sections and deprive the agitators of the means of agitation. Under his administration both the opposing parties would be driven to the wall, and the people, divided in the support of or opposition to measures and principles not of a sectional and peace disturbing character. It behooves the great masses, therefore, to arise in their strength and elect Mr. BELL. They can in no way do their country nore signal service. Nemesis.

We acknowledged the reception, a few days ego, from W. T. BERRY & Co., of a copy of a new novel by MARIAN HARLAND, with the above title. We have since found time to read it, and must confess that we have seldom been so much entertained by a work of fiction. It is one of the best written, most interesting, and useful of the class of works to which it belongs. No one can read it without admiration for the author, a renewed hatred of oppression and wrong, and a higher appreciation of true christian character. The Home Journal speaks of the book as follows and we endorse every word of it: It is worthy of note that the former works of this authoress have been republished in England, France and Germany-indeed, no other American female writer has the honor of a republication in the Leipzig issues of Alphouse Durr, which embraces Bryant, Longfellow, Hawthorne, and Prescott. The scene of the story of "Nemesis" is laid in the South; the time, the beginning of the present century. The customs, and many of the events, of those days are traced with fidelity and spirit, yet so skillfully interwoven with the narrative that the reader is not wearied by statistics or dry historical details. The homes of fifty years ago seem familiar to him as those he visited but yesterday, and their mates differ little from the men and women with whom he associates daily. The pictures of humble life, of which we have many in the earlier chapters, are graphic and refreshing. In no other work from the author's pen can there be found greater variety of incident, more artistic delineation of character, more canrestness of thought and vigor of description, and certainly no other contains a plot so striking in conception and so ably managed. The reader cannot but remark as he morning. as he passed here on the cars, on his way to Georgia. We will publish the proceeds, how naturally, yet how irresistibly, he is borne along by the tide of events—for the story seems to tell itself-the author, all bold and somewhat ominous title that frowns at the top of the page. Before the "Nemesis" is unveiled, the reader feels her subtle pecting objects of her vengeance, and the pertinent motto of the authoress-"The Mills > story itself of absorbing interest. Races. NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Flora Temple beat Brown Dick. Time: 2:32—2:251—2:38. The last being a dead heat, when Dick was drawn on account of lameness.

The Lexington Statesman publishes the fol-Whilst Southern opponents of Mr. Bell, by distorting and perverting his record, are en- lowing correspondence:

deavoring to convince the people of the AUGUST 18, 1860. South that he is unworthy of their support, HON, JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, Lexington, Ky: Dear Sir : Your friends of this Congres sional District, have deputed us to request you to address the people (at a barbecue to count of his views upon the subject of slabe given by them to suit your convenience) frr the purpose of publicly vindicating your self from the violent personal assaults made upon you since your nomination for the Presidency at Baltimore. They have been induced to make this quest more particularly, because you have been recently assailed from the "stump" by Judge Douglas, at Concord, and Mr. Crittenden at Louisville; the former charging you with having uttered extreme opinions in favor of Squatter Sovereignty, and the latter asserting that as Presidential candidate of a disunion party; we wish to afford you the opportunity publicly to repel these assaults. pelieving that no just man would be disposed to require that you should, by your silence, last three years, you have not had the right the flag of our Union, and strike for its Con- democratic style. For particulars, vide the to speak in the Senate, although by law its stitution. Yours, most respectfully, presiding officer; and because the obvious motive of these personal assaults is to weaken the confidence of the people in the National and Constitutional Democracy. Will you permit us to urge you to name an early day when it may suit your convenience to meet and address us. Very truly and respectfully your friends, WILLIAM JOHNSON, RICHARD HAWES, THOS. B. MONROE, Jr. JUNIUS R. WARD. ASA PAYNE. ASA MCCONATHY, A. THOMAS. L. C. RANDALL, JOSEPH PATTERSON. C. M. JOHNSON. JAS. H. GARRARD. WILLA VILEY. JAS. P. METCALE V. M. FLOURNOY. THES. W. BULLOCK, JAMES WARREN.

LEXINGTON, Ky., August 21, 1060. GENTLEMEN: I have received your letter of him and the Southern Democracy. Neither | friends of this Congressional District, you indoes he countenance disunion, nor treason of | vite me to address the people, for the purpose any kind. His policy is to protect and ex- of vindicating myself from the violent pertend slavery within the Union, without con- | sonal assaults made upon me since my nomination for the Presidency at Baltimore.

I have not proposed at any time to take John Bell's record establishes him. In the the signatures of many of my oldest and great debate on the compromise measures of 1850, he argued that slavery is right in itself me almost commands; and after some reflection, I have resolved to accept your invitation; not that I consider any defense necesbut because it may be well to group together in barmony with the laws of nature, and and refute, in a public and authentic manner, as prevailed in all ages and countries. This accusations remarkable for their number. language can no farther go in panegyrizing | they have been arged against me. I feel that it would be unjust to my principles, my friends, and myself to remain longer in simade, to the satisfaction of all candid and honorable men. It will be agrecable to me to meet my fel-

> that you may select. Very truly your friend, JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE. The Statesman says:

ALABAMA. - A gentleman from Middle Ala eing before the Senate, Mr. Douglas moved | bama sends us a list of subscribers, with the prospects in Alabama.

The Boston Courier says of the New York

"There is a flavor of very bad whisky about much that appears in the sheet from from day to day. The New York Flash was cepted squatter sovereignty, his vote on that have lost his wits as well as his manners; he

OUR CORRESPONDENCE. COLUMBIA, Aug. 21, 1860.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE DAILY PATRIOT : Again Col. Thos. McNeilly appears in a card, comment to man Democrat voting for the las Democrat' understood me as he says," and adds, that he "is unwilling to be made to say that the Constitution establishes slavery in | that which I did not say." Strange logic all the Territories. We grant that Bell voted that, Mr. Mac. You are willing to grant that I understood you (as I did) correctly, yet you are not willing.

Refer "to this matter again" as you may please; I have not one word to retract, but perist that you did use the language which I reported

You bring forward five gentlemen to prove that I am in error. I do not know them. I presume they are gentlemen, and men of reracity. Are they willing to testify positively to your language? Perhaps their recolof Whitthorne's speech on the 7th of May-that Squatter Sovereignty speech. Hear more evidence. I introduce Jno. Gordon, a Breckinride democrat. He says: 'My best recollection is, that Mr. McNeilly it; but the language which be (McN.) says he used, I am willing to swear positively he did

Mr. J. D. L. Nunnelee, Breckinridge democrat, says he did not hear the remark himself, but he thinks he conversed with not less Democrat" did, and that a Mr. ----, a law- fore. ver at Centreville, and a Breckinridge democrat, made use of a remark which I will do Mr. McNeilly the courtesy not to state in this connection. Another Breckinridge democrat came to me immediately after the speaking was over, and said, after a few moments' conversation, "I am in hopes you took no exception to his (McN's.) remarks, but only considered the source." Still another Breckinridge man, a "big

the Jefferson, Jackson, Polk, and Pierce ed by them. school. I have never had the privilege of vo-That looked somewhat democratic then; but now these men have deserted the old ship and are following after the lead of Yancey, and joined the seceders. I am a democrat rescuing the government from the Vandal one to whom appeals will be made in less hands of the despoiling Democracy. His ex- Democratic party. I think so still. than twelve months to vote for the local position of the designs of the Democratic nominees of the democracy, and I for one leaders in keeping up the agitation of the will be there, but in this contest, being an slavery question, and of their folly or wickardent admirer of Judge Douglas, regarding edness in splitting the National Democratic bim as being the greatest and purest patriot | party on so trivial an issue as slavery in the and statesman of the present day, and the territories, was a masterly effort. He showregular nominee of the democratic party, ed the extravagance and corruption of the endorsing heartily his doctrine of Popular administration in a strain of eloquent and

tial vote for him. son than to lend a belping hand to kill in its | ridge was responsible for a full share of the infancy that party known as secessionists. I short-comings of the "old public functiondo not charge or believe Breckinridge and ary." The illustration on this subject was Lane are disquionists; nor do I believe that so good that I cannot refrain from giving a large majority of his supporters are dis- your readers the benefit of it. He said the a large majority of his supporters are dis-unionists; but the party which they repre-sent; for which they bear the colors, has a doing business together four years, and if

Mr. Bell and the Question of Slavery. Mr. Breckinridge to Take the Stump. very great tendency to sectionalize the Sou- Mr. Breckinridge wished to escape responsi there States, and this will ultimately result | bility for the future he could do so in the in a dissolution of the Union and the estab- usual way. He could put an advertisement lishment of a Southern Confederacy. Does in the papers giving notice of the dissolution any man wish such a result? I, for one, an swer no. To dissolve this Union to remedy all persons "to present their accounts to Mr. evils would be like the suicide who severs Buchanan, who is alone authorized to settle the thread of life to be rid of trouble. If I could be satisfied that the Breckinridg vote most cheerfully for Mr. Breckinridge party has not this tendency. I would forsake my present preference for Judge Douglas, and re- I not do endorse a disruption of the party upon mere personal preference for men. Answer me Hon. John Y. Brown's question? "When you fail to obtain that Constitutional right you insist upon, what will you do about it? Will you submit, or will you se- of the Breckinridge men wherever he speaks, the National Democracy, you are the head of cede from the Union, as you did from a democratic Convention?" And until I get an to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. At the answer-one that responds with a love for close of the speaking, to-day, an old gentlethe Union-one that holds all sections of the permit charges so unjust to be promulgated under the authority of these distinguished be as they may, under no circumstances will speeches as that all over the district, Bell will carry it by a larger majority than it ever men. The propriety of thus publicly stamping as false these and other accusations is the more obvious when we reflect, that for the otic and national democrats who stand by A DOUGLAS DEMOCRAT.

RICH VALLEY, Bedford Co., Tenn., ? August 18th, 1860. EDITORS PATRIOT: - Believing that the friends of the Union are entitled to all the evidences accumulating over our country. of the increasing interest, confidence and zeal that animate the friends of Bell and Everett, and that they should send to each other words of greeting. I have felt moved to give them a brief report (though imperfect it may be.) of a discussion I had the pleasure of listening to to-day, between Robt. Matthews, Breckinridge delegate to Charleston and Balthe 18th inst., in which, on behalf of my timore, and Col. Matt. Martin, bot's of Bedford county, but at Charity, in the demo cratic county of old Lincoln. Mr. Mat thews, though not accustomed to public speaking, seems impelled, by the distracted condition of his party, to rush to the rescue. part in the general political discussions of the day. To this letter, however, I recognize The "unterrified" are having their apprehensions aroused that mutiny must be abroad in their camps, otherwise, the plain, sober old men of the party would not attempt to play the orator, and turn stump-speakers in their sary before my neighbors and constituents, declining years. Mr. Matthews' speech at Charity, I think, was his second effort, and as far as earnestness of manner and vehement is sufficiently explicit. Indeed the force of their injustice, and the persistency with which gesticulation are concerned, he is not to be complained of. He first attempted an explanation and justification of his course as a lence beneath this torrent of defamation; and delegate-refused secession at Charleston, I hope to repel every charge which has been but accepted it at Baltimore. That he failed, notwithstanding his laborious efforts, to make his democratic friends comprehend the low-citizens on any day and at any place reasons and appreciate his consistency, could be read in every countenance. After his failure in this, he commenced general onslaught upon Mr. Bell; deprecated in the most bewailing manner the divisions His friends have designated the 5th of September as the time for the address, and in the South, and tendered to the Opposition NEAR LEXINGTON as the place of the the simple and absurd advice to abandon Bell and Everett and unite on Breckinridge account of the disruption of the great Naremark that one of them "is an old demo- tional Democratic party; and the despondent crat, 80 years of age, who is supporting Bell looks of his friends seemed to indicate the idea that it is hopeless to expect union from with the principles of non-intervention by The writer is much encouraged by the fine the Opposition, when we have sacrificed union among ourselves for a barren abstrac-

Col. Martin took the stand, and seeing that the democrats had listened to Mr. Matthews more from courtesy, and a sort of sympathy for his agonizing manner, than for convincing as courteous a journal in its day as the Tri- argument and satisfactory explanations, probune is now. The old office-hunter seems to ceeded at once to charge, prove and demonstrate that the clue to the disruption of the democratic party was to be found in the fact, that ultra-radical and reckless men had wrought it for the purpose of dissolving our glorious Union.

Col. Martin submitted such an ar ray of circumstances, tacts and argments, patriotic strain, that the audience seemed to be held spell-bound. For full two hours be had the most undivided and respectful attention I ever saw paid an Opposition speaker in Lincoln county. It was evident that Col. Martin was showing and proving to the democracy of Lincoln what they had expected Mr. Matthews to do-the causes that had broken up their once great party. Mr. Matthews' explanation or excuse for it seemed to excite pity and despair, while Col. Martin's elucidation of the subject excited astonishment and indignation.

Among the disunion sayings, doings and documents, Col. Martin read the letter of lection is somewhat like that of my young John Mitchell, the Irish exile, recommending friend Hunter of the Herald was in the notes his fellow countrymen to favor and support the sectional parties of their respective sections, that the end for which he had labored so long might be accomplished-to-wit: disunion. Mr. Matthews (who is also an Irishman) seemed, I hope I may say, morused the language reported by a Douglas tified, at this evidence of disunion from his Democrat.' It is at least the substance of Irish brother; and while, no doubt, he honestly condemns the sentiment of his brother. it is much to be regretted that he is treading the path laid down in that letter to effect so direful a purpose.

I am satisfied that much good was done, and that old Lincoln, the home of honest G. than twenty-five men on the ground, and W. Jones, who did not approve of the secesseveral as he went home, and they all give sion at Charleston and Baltimore, will give a it precisely the version which a "Douglas vastly different report of herself than hereto-FELIX.

The Canvass in the Eighth District---Brilliant Speeches of John F. House -A Fuss in the Family.

Dickson County, Aug. 22nd, 1860. EDITORS PATRIOT:-I have just heard the candidates for Elector at Sladin's Store. Mr. McCann, the Douglas champion, opened the appeal to the Democracy to rally to the nomhoss" in the harness -a man whom I greatly lines of the National Convention. He pre- of the Democratic party, which could only admire as a man, as a politician, and as a sented the facts and arguments on his side of be done by defeating their candidates in as speaker -- a man whom I recognize as a friend, the question with dicided ability. He is many States as possible. He said if he lived and from that friendship which I bear him, evidently very inexperienced as a political I shall, as it is his wish, still suppress his debater, but nevertheless presents the points had a chance, he should vote for Bell. This name-this gentleman said to me the Monday | with ability, and gives entire satisfaction to | advice from a man of the position held by after the barbecue: "Mr. McNeilly ought not the Douglas men, of whom there are a con- Mr. Etheridge in his party, has great weight to have used the language-it was wrong!" siderable number in this neighborhood. In Dr. Wm. F. Southern, a Bellite, says I re- fact, there are more democrats in this section last, I was the guest of Hon. R. W. Thompported Mr. McN. correctly as he understood it. of Old Dickson, who favor the cause of Dong- son, for one day. It is true that I was sere-As to my "political status" I have always las than there are who support Breckinridge. claimed to be a democrat, a democrat of Mr. McCann's speech to-day was well receiv-

He was followed by Mr. House in one of Sovereignty, I shall cast my first Presiden- withering denunciation, such as I never heard before; and in this part of his speech, he I would support him it for no other rea- took particular pains to show that Breckin-

HOUSE WAND WARD STREET

ma-ilimet 24

Market of Lot Associate

of partnership between them, and direction the debts of the concern." Until such a no tice as this is published, the presumption is that the partnership is still existing, and in asmuch as old Back is notoriously insolvent, Mr. Breckin-idge must be looked to as the only responsible member of the firm. This illustration, given in House's best style, had a tremendous effect. But his manner of treating every issue of the canvass is forcible and impressive. He strikes terror into the hearts man said to me: "Sir, if he makes such speeches as that all over the district, Bell

Mr. Haywood followed in the ordinary Union and American from the 1st of May, 1860, to the 22d August, inclusive. The principal points in his speech had been anticipated by House, and fell flat and harmless upon the audience. The Union men were delighted with the discussion. Tennessee has few equals and no superiors to Mr. House as a popular speaker. The only regret I feel is that Mr. Ewing declined the nomination for lector on the Breckinridge ticket. Had he accepted the position, John F. House would have made a reputation in the canvass, that the proudest of Tennessee's gallant sons night have envied. Even as it is, he is exiting the admiration of all who hear him. His speech to-day was undoubtedly one of the best I ever heard. It was eloquent and argumentative, and interspersed with just enough humor to relieve the weariness of the crowd Rest assured all is right in this dis-

CHARLOTTE, Aug. 23, 1860. MESSES. EDITORS :- We had another com plete triumph to-day. House opened the discussion in a speech that was better, if possible, than the one he made yesterday. He was in fine condition and he made the fur fly every blow. The Yancey-ridgers are badly down in the mouth, and the Bell and Everett men are jubilant. You may safely calculate on a large gain in Dickson.

The usual pleasant routine was varied to day, somewhat, by a little flare-up between the Douglas and Breckinridge candidates. In the course of his remarks Mr. McCann spoke of Breckinridge as a traitor to his party. He also said that Benedict Arnold was a traitor to his country in the Revolutionary war, and "what Arnold was to his country," continned Mr. McCann, "Breckinridge is to the democratic party." When he closed his remarks, Mr. Haywood asked him to whom he applied these offensive epithets and comparisons. McCann said, to Breckinridge. Mr. Hawood and Lane, as the panacea for all our ills. His seemed to be much excited, and remarked appeals for union contrasted badly with his that it was discourteous to him to apply T is my intention to reopen my Eating House, No such language to his candidate. Mr. McCann replied that the Breckiuridge editors and stump-speakers were in the babit of using such language to their opponents. Mr. Hay wood said he had never charged Mr. Douglas with being a traitor. Mr. MCann said-"If you did nobody would believe it." Whereupon Mr. Haywood gave him the lie. With that Mr. McCann called him a damned liar, and they both rushed towards each other. But some gentlemen, who were standing near, interfered, and prevented them from getting together. The affair has since been amicably adjusted. This little diversion created quite a stir in he audience, and the supporters of both Breckinridge and Douglas began to take sides with their champions, and for a while there was a fine prospect of a grand fight. But everything was quieted after a while, and men in the very best kind of spirits.

Card from Hon, Emerson Ether idge.

EDITORS AVALANCHE: In your daily paper the 18th inst., is the following statement "We understand that the Hon. Emerson Etheridge made a speech at Dresden, Tenn.. during which he read the Black Republican platform, and asked if there was any man here who could find fault with it. He further said that the election of Lincoln on that platform would give peace to the country, whilst Breckinridge's election would dissolve

So much of the above as represents me to have made a speech at Dresden, and as havng read the Republican platform, is true. I did not ask, in regard to the platform, "ff here was any man there who could find fault with t." I approved some portions of the platform and disapproved other portions, as did every person present. I did not say that "the lection of Lincoln on that platform would give peace to the country," nor did I say Breckinridge's election would dissolve the Union." What I did say would, if published require more of your space than I feel willing to ask. In the same number of your paper, I find the following, which purports to have been written by a correspondent of the Newark Advertiser, from Terre Haute, Indiana: "In regard to the Bell and Everett move-nent in this State, nothing positive can yet e known as to their running an electoral ticket in Indiana. Hon: Richard W. Thompson, the acknowledged leader of the party, has expressed his determination to support both the Republican State and Electoral tickets, and it is understood that he will discourage the organization of the party in opposition to the support of Lincoln and Ham-lin. The Hon. E. Etheridge, of Tennessee, on his return from Washington, was the guest of Col. Thompson for a few days, and when in the city was serenaded by his political triends, when he made a speech and exhorted them to cast aside the all idea of supporting a Bell ticket in Indiana, and give discussion in a very ingenious and earnest | their united support to Lincoln. He advised them that all the efforts of the united Oppoposition should be directed to the overthrow as he lived in a State where his own ticket with the members of that party in Indiana. On my return from Washington in June naded by my friends. I responded to the call in a very brief speech, in which I comabout Mr. Lincoln or the Republican party; about the formation of an Electoral as to my voting for Lincoln if I lived in Inting but one time in a political contest, and the most effective speeches I have ever listendiana, or about my voting for Lincoln if I lived in Indiana, or about my voting for Mr. Bell because I lived in a State where he had a (God torgive me and I will never make the ue- politicians in the Democratic party had en- chance. I had declined a very pressing re-(God forgive me and I will never make the ac-knowledgment again), Whitthorne and Gantt. | dangered the Union, and that they would and the serenade was wholly unexpected. I soon destroy the fair fabric of American said nothing which could be tortured into a liberty unless the people put a stop to their justification for the above, unless it was the career. No one could listen to such a speech | declaration which I have often made within and are following after the lead of Yancey, Rhett & Co.—they have quit the democracy without being convinced of the necessity of whole country and the welfare of all sections would be promoted by the overthrow of the

Your comments on the above extracts, justify me in believing that you will give me room in your paper for this communica-tion, which I have endeavored to make as brief as possible

Very respectfully. E. ETHERIDGE. MEMPHIS, August 21, 1860.

A Street Rencontre. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 22 .- There was great excitement in our streets to-day, which was occasioned by Ben. C. Yancey, Esq., a son of Hon. W. L. Yancey, striking Hon. J. J. Siebels with a cane. A scuffle ensued between the parties, but they were separated without much damage. The difficulty was occasioned by politics.

On the 16th inst., at Berryvile Va., in his 33d

m. E. Shower, Dentist of this city nemetical Preparation, by a regularly educated Phy can—a one of the most pleasant and valuable tonics of the day. Persons recovering from protracted illese, or those who, at this particular season of the rear, are subject to Jaundice, Habitual Constipation, or my disease arising from a disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels, will find in the Sherry Wine Bitters a friend more to be desired than gold. Sold by W. W. Berry & Demoville, Ewin. Pendlet

Country dealers visiting our city will bear in mind hat W. W. Berry & Demoville, Rains & Brown, Ewin endleton & Co.'s are the stores to find pure and gent ine drugs, and such staple and genuine medicines as 'erry Davis' Pain Killer, Dr. Richardson's Sherry Wine litters and Dr. Weaver's Canker and Salt Phonm Syrup and Cerate. Any druggist dealing in such pure and good medicines must prosper, and to use them warrant aug20-daw4ws

& Co., and Rains & Brown, Nashville, Tenn.

aug20-daw4w

CAN NOT BE DENIED that the celebrated and popular medicines of Dr. S. A. Weaver, far surpasses all other emedies for humors and chronic complaints. All over the country people are advertising this fact. If they are truly as good as they are said to be (and there is reason to doubt), they are truly a blessing to sufferaug20-daw4w

Uem Advertisements.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS. THE SIXTH YEAR OF THE PUBLIC Schools of this

he 1st of September, in the following places:
Applicants living in the city north of Union street, vill procure their tickets at the Hynes Buildings Phose living between Union and Demumbrane screets at the Hume Buildings. Those living south of Demum brane street, at the Howard Building on College Hill To prevent confusion, let each parent or child be praced to tell the name [in full] and age of the applicat where born—the name of the parent or guardi a street and Ward in which the applicant res o ticket will be issued till these facts are satisfactor i tested. Each of these places will be opened at 8. , on Saturday, the first day of September for the button of tickers. By order of the Board of Education.

Nashville, August 21, 1860.

August 25 17

Great Auction Sale of PARE FURNITURE!

At the Furniture Rooms of CAIN & CORNELIUS, No 49 Church st., opposite the Maxwell House.)

O'N TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 11TH, at 10
o'lelock Beni F. Shields & Co. will proceed to sell o'clock, Benj. F. Shields & Co. will proceed to sell without reserve, and continue from day to day until he entire stock is closed. This extensive assortment of Furniture, Seasoned Lumber, Materials, Tools, Hardware, etc., consisting in part of the following articles Fine Marbie Top, Mahogany Resewood and Walnu easts; Fine Extension, Dining and Breakfast Table são assorted Bedsteads and Lounges; elegant Ward-robes and Cribs, Wash Stands, Hat Racks, Spring Bot tom Parlor Chairs and Rich Rockers, Towel Racks, Soes, Hall Tables, Fine Writing Desks, Hall Chairs lothes Horses, with an assortment of Gilt and Ma ogany Looking Glasses—in short one of the larg id most complete stocks yet offered it, our city

Terms .- All sums under $50 cash; all sums over $50 nd under $100 30 days; all sums over $100 90 days BENJ F. SHIELDS & CO.,

Unless previously disposed of after the sale of Furniure is over we will sell all the Lumber, Machinery fools, &c-consisting of a modern made. Steam. Enginand Boiler, Planing Machines, Circular Saws, Mortis Turning Machine, Sharpening Machine, Grooves and al machinery necessary to manufacture on a large scale together with the buildings and the Factory. Nashville Aug. 20th, 1860. B. F. S. & Co.

Restaurant.

shall be prepared, at all hours, to serve up anything season, as well as the substantials. Having an experienced, energetic business man to assist me, I am warranted in promising to give general satisfaction.

J. W. BIGGS. style-Game, Fish, Oysters, all the delicacies of the season, as well as the substantials. Having an ex-

FALL AND WINTER TRADE.

W E are now receiving and opening a large and selected stock of STAPLE AND FANCY

GOODS

LADIES' DRESS GOODS. TRIMMINGS, &c. READY-MADE CLOTHING.

SHOES, BOOTS AND BROGANS. egro extra size Mud Boots, and fine Fur and Wool Hats, Cosh Caps, and a large stock of Variety Goods. Threads of all kinds, and Yankee Notions, &c., &c.

A large stock of every grade of Prints, Bleached and Brown Domestics, Plaid Linseys, printed and plain; all wool Delains and Cashmers, Colored Silks, Black Silks, Poplias, Debages, French Merinos, English and German Merinos, Printed American Belaines, Ribbons, Trim-mings, White goods, Embroideries, Laces; a large stock of white, yellow, red and gray Flannels; Cloths, Cassimers, Sattinetts, Jeans, Seal Skin and Beaver Cloths; Over Contings; a large stock of Shirts, Skirts, Fronts, Shirt Collars, Sospenders, Gloves, Hose and Fronts, Shirt Coliars, Sospenders, Gloves, Hose and half Hose of every kind, &c., &c.

READY - MADE CLOTHING. Consisting of Over Coats, Business Coats, Fine Cioth Frock and Dress Coats Pants and Vests, Under Shi and Drawers. A full line of Clothes Low in store, it

ALSO, 550 cases of Shoes, Boots and Brogans, Chil iren's Boots and Shoes, and Infant Shoes. This stock s unusually large, and will be sold under any body's prices in this market.

CARPETING.

elvet and Brussels Carpeting, 3 and 2 ply half wool

Knives and Forks, Saws, Augers, Gimblets, Door Locks, Pad Locks, Black-ing Brushes, Blacking, Guns and Gun Caps, &c., cheap.

ALSO,

We unwillingly acknowledge that we have the largest stock of every description of Goods in the city of Nashville, and all we have to say, is that we intend TO SELL THEM. Our house SHALL be the head quarters for c7sh and short time prompt buyers only. There is a Cash and prompt Time Trade that purchase their goods in this city, and we intend to sell to that Trade exclusively; and we say to cash and prompt time buyers call and examine our

LARGE AND EXTENSIVE STOCK Before you buy, be sure.

EDWARD TRABUE & W. H. LUCUS, No. 73 Public Square, Nashville, Tenn

We have in our employ the following gentlemen: GEO. W. SHIELDS. Bookseller and Cashier; GEO. W. NORVELL, Entry, Bill Clerk and Salesm JAMES B. NICHOL, Sales W. RAYMOND, do: HARDEN P. BOSTICK, do: by a good deal.

These gentlemen will be gind to see their friends at all times and especially these who purchase for cash and pay their notes when due. TRABUE & LUCUS.

Fireworks! Fireworks!! FLAGS AND TORCHES! John Luck, 45 Union street, has now the best as-sortment in Nashville of everything in the above line, which will be sold, wholessle and retail as low as a good article can be bought anywhere. The Torches are something new, and the best thing ever introduced for political processions.

1860.

No. 59, College Street,

Are now receiving their stock of Fall and Winter GOODS.

And take pleasure in announcing to their friends and customers, and the trade generally, that they will have a stock of goods this season which cannot be excelled. We most respectfully invite all to an ex amination of our Goods, assuring all who favor us with a call to give entire satisfac-

VELVET ROBES, with Flounces, very rich; RADZMIER SILKS

POULT 'DE SOIE BROCHE SILKS: CHECKED SILKS BLACK ARMURE: OTTOMAM VA UR, New article

OSMANLI POPLINS, and VALENCIA ROBES.

LACE GOODS

Our Lace department is unusually attract tive this season. New Styles in

Lace Sets, Maltese Sets. Point A'Guille Sets. Point de Angleterre Sets, White Goods!

Irish Linen. Linen Sheetings, Linen Toweling. Table Damask, Linen Boyles White and Colored Tarlets Linen Cambric, French Muslin. Jaconet Muslin Swiss Muslin.

Nainsook do.

CARPETS

BRUSSELS,

INGRAIN.

VELVET, and

CURTAINS

Curtain Damask, and Curtain Trimmings.

ALSO,

STAPLE GOODS.

A full assortment of the various styles o French, English and American Prints Bleached and Brown Shirting and Shee

FLANNELS, Something to suit the Times

WHITE AND COLORED FLANNELS, all grades; TWEEDS. JEANS, CASSIMERES, CLOTH

CLOTHS, &c. ods for Boy's Wear

PLANTATION GOODS. We call particular attention to our large and excellent assortment of Heavy Goods for Negroes. Empire Kerseys, Tennessee Truck for Trowsers.

> Plaid Linseys. Heavy Blankets. Osnaburgs. Jeans, &c., &c.

THOMPSON & CO.

1860. New Publications.

A NEW BOOK BY MARION HARLAND. W. T. BERRY & CO. Have just received NEMPNIS; a Novel, by Marion Har-

English Books.

W. T. BERRY & CO. HAVE JUST RECEIVED.

HE TEN YEARS' CONFLICT; being the History o

the Disruption of the Church of Scotland, by Be ber Buchanan, D. D. 2 vois. 8 vo. half calf STFINMEITZ'S HISTORY OF THE JESUITS 3 vols OX'S ACTS AND MONUMENTS OF THE CHURCH with Portraits and Memoirs, embracing 8 vols., 8 vo , half Russia. . Best edition of the famous book of Martyrs. TODD'S LIFE OF CRANMER; 2 vols., Svo., calf.

FOSBROKE'S ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ANTIQUITIES; 2

vols. 4to, half morocco FOSBR OKE'S FOREIGN TYPOGRAPHY, an account of the Ancient Remains in Africa, Asia and Europe; 1 vol., 4to. WRAXALL'S POSTHUMOUS MEMOIRS OF HIS OWN

MEMOIRS OF THE COURT OF MARIE ANTOINETTE. Queen of France; 2 vols .. cloth. MAD. DE STAEL'S GERMANY, 2 vols. in one, 5 vo. half calf.

BULWER'S NOVELS, new erition, edited by the au thor, 20 vols., calf. MARIA EDGEWORTH'S TALES AND NOVELS, 9 vol

12 mo., balfcalf, SCOTT'S (Sir Walter,) MISCELLANEOUS PROSI WORK; 28 vols., half calf. SCOTT'S LIFE, by Locubart; 10 vols., bail call SCOTT'S POETICAL WORKS; 10 vols., half calf

CAMPBELL'S SPECIMEN OF THE BRITISH POETS. with Biographical and Critical Notices; 7 vols.,

RABB'S DICTIONARY OF GENERAL KNOWLEDGE, OSCOE'S ITALIAN NOVELISTS, from the earliest

WHEWELL ON THE PHILOSOPHY OF DISCOVERY 12mo. WHEWELL'S HISTORY OF THE INDUCTIVE SCI ENCES, 3 vols. 12 mo.

OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE ESSAYS; 8 vols. calf. OXFORD PRIZE ESSAYS, 5 vols., half morocco OXFORD TRACES FOR THE TIMES, 6 vols. call.

STAUNTON'S CHESS PRAXIS, a Supplement to the Chess Player's hand-book, 1 vol. D'AUBIGNE'S HISTORY OF THE REFORMATIO new Edition, with numerous fine Portraits, 5 vois half calf.

POETRY OF THE ANTI-JACOBIN, containing the celebrat of Politilical and Satirical Poems, Paro-to 1630. 1 vol., 8mo., calf.

TALFOURD'S DRAMAS, 1 vol. TAYLOR'S HOLY LIVING AND DYING, 2 vols DAILY STUDIES DURING LENT, 1 vol.

EADERS OF THE REFORMATION, Luther, Calvia

Public Square Ladies Shoes and Gaiters, together with oth Children's shoes. -ALSO-A large and superior stock of Gentlemen's wear. Sisting of Patent Leather Gaiters and Strapt Shoes ity, and which we are offering at reduced price Call at No. 21 Public Square. junet-tf sgar SNYDER & FRIZZELL.

BOOK, STATIONARY PERIODICAL STORE,

Debility from Heat. While the Thermometer ranges over 90 in the shade, the Graefenberg HEALTH BITTERS, which cost 25c a package, makes the best strengthening tonic in the world. For 25 cents you can make balt a gallon of these health giving Bitters, which aid the crops, would suggest the propriety of sowing Hungarian Grass Seed extensively, of which he has still got a supply. Also a small lot of Missouri Millet, Fall Goods!

GUN AND PISTOL MAKING.

Frank J. Bitterlich, No. 16 Beaderick Steet, Up Stairs, NASHVILLE, TENN. MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN

TO FARMERS.

VASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

We at present, invite particular attention o our excellent assortment of

AEM BIGH DRESS GOODS

ARMULE SILK, (in colors,) something entire SOLID COLORED SILK, in plain colors and fi

BULWER'S POEMS AND DRAMAS, 5 vols SHERIDEN KNOWLES' DRAMATIC WORKS, 3 vols.

Point de Alencon Sets. DECADE OF ITALIAN WOMEN, by T Adolphus Trollope, 2 vols

W. T. BERRY & CO.,

" brown Congress " " & bl'k button

Lasting " " " " " "
The above goods are all fresh and of the best qual-

No family should be without the Dysentery Syr-up in the House. Children are dying daily from Bowel Complaint, which this remedy would promptly

Guns, Rifles and Pistols,

Hungarian Grass Seed.

Which will mature in from 45 to 60 DAYS. This article has been already tried this season, and is highly recommended by some of our best farmers. A. JENKINS, No. 14 Market Street.

The Largest Stock of

PROVERBS OF ERASMUS; two volumes in one, half

TIME; 3 vols. 8 vo., half calf; Portraits

COTT'S WAVERLY NOVELS; 48 vols . ball me

OSE'S NEW GENERAL BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONA-RY, the articles contributed by the most eminent Scholars of the day, complete in 12 vois., 8vo

MILL'S PRINCIPLES OF POLITICAL ECONOMY;

VINET'S STUDIES OF PASCAL, 1 vol. LIFE OF JEAN PAUL RICHTER, together with his Auto-biography, translated from the German

SONGS OF BERANGER, with a Sketch of his Life, 1

PLAIN COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPELS,

Johnson & Treanor,

Cholera, Flux, Dysentery.

appetite, give power to the constitution, regulate the bowels and conquor's general debility. Now is the season for their use.

july13-tf MACKENZIE & MINCHIN

TN anticipation of a failure in the Fodder and Corn

Is now being received by the undersigned, embracing every possible grade, at much lower figures than for ten years past.

Jobbers, as well as dealers generally, are invited to examine my STOCK AND PRICES.

period, 4 vols., bulf calf.

MEMOIRS OF THE DUKE OF URBINO, : llustrating the Arms, Arts and Literature of Italyfrom 1440

While the Thermometer ranges over 90 in

All work warranted to be of the finest workmanship and of the most superior quality.

Repairing done in the best manner, and war-

NO. 14, MARKET STREET,

Tempest's Stone Jars nust supercede all others.
june6-tf MACKENZII: & MINCHIN.

Ever Shipped to Nashville.

RELIQUES OF FATHER PROUT, 1 vol. BOSWORTH'S ANGLO SAXON DIOTIONARY, 1

dies and Jeux D'Esprit of Canning and others. 1

Latimer and Knox; by John Talloch, D. D.

ADJES fine black Congress Gaiters, with beels; " Kid Shppers, with and without heels; ith other styles of Ladies' Misses' and

No. 6 Union Street, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE.

A. JENKINS